

Responsible Science campaigner – Scientists for Global Responsibility

Person Specification

A – Application form. Please provide information in the application form. The shortlist of applicants for interview will be decided by the information included in the form.

I - Interview question. For those applicants shortlisted for interview, these criteria will be further explored through questions in the interview.

Ev – Evidence. For those applicants shortlisted for interview, please provide evidence or examples to meet these criteria.

Essential	A	I	Ev
Ability to communicate scientific and ethical ideas effectively using the written and spoken word	✓		✓
Ability to build relationships with SGR's members, other scientists/ engineers, campaigners, and journalists	✓	✓
Ability to use social media, including Twitter and/or Facebook, for publicising and promoting activities	✓		✓
Ability to recruit members to a membership organisation	✓	✓
Ability to extract information from secondary data sources (quantitative and qualitative)	✓	✓	✓
IT skills, including word-processing to write letters, progress reports etc; email; and web-browsers	✓		✓
Ability to work autonomously to deadlines	✓	✓
Interest in and support for SGR's main aim, i.e. to promote science and technology that contributes to peace, social justice and environmental sustainability	✓	✓

Desirable	A	I	Ev
Bachelors degree in a science/ technology subject	✓		✓
Knowledge of and/or experience of working in 'green' or science-based non-governmental organisations	✓	✓
Knowledge of ethical issues in science, design or technology, including environmental and/ or peace issues	✓	✓
Ability to maintain websites through updating and uploading material	✓		✓
Ability to write and disseminate media releases	✓		✓