

SGR Responsible Science Conference 2023

Responsible science and the polycrisis – new hope and false solutions

Wednesday 18th October, 16.00-18.00 (BST) on Zoom

Register for a free ticket (donations welcome!) at:

www.sgr.org.uk/events

Programme

- 4.00 - 4.05 Welcome and introduction - new hope and false solutions
Andrew Simms, SGR
- 4.05 - 4.15 Why behaviour change is a better bet for climate action than offsetting and speculative technology
Prof. Lorraine Whitmarsh MBE, University of Bath
- 4.20 - 4.30 Security, economy, environment - the unavoidable connection
Prof. Paul Rogers, Bradford University
- 4.35 - 4.45 Degrowth and Green Growth – what’s the difference for rapid climate action?
Dr. Beth Stratford, ecological/political economist
- 4.50 - 5.00 From corporate science to responsible science: what’s the role of R&D in tackling the polycrisis?
Dr. Stuart Parkinson, SGR
- 5.05 - 5.20 General Q&A/discussion
- 5.20 - 5.25 Break
- 5.25 - 5.50 “Hope pitches” - 60 second pitches from SGR members on hopeful proposals
- 5.50 - 6.00 Polls & closing remarks

6.15 - 7.00 AGM (SGR members only)
